"Hello, everyone! My name is [Your Name], I recently completed my Bachelor's degree in Computer Science from [University Name]. Throughout my academic journey, I developed a strong passion for coding and software development, which led me to pursue a career in this dynamic field.

During my studies, I gained hands-on experience in various programming languages such as Java, Python, and C++. I also honed my skills in web development, database management, and software testing. I actively participated in coding competitions and hackathons, which helped me enhance my problem-solving abilities and fostered a collaborative mindset.

I completed internships at [Company/Organization Name], where I had the opportunity to work on real-world software projects. These experiences allowed me to apply my theoretical knowledge and learn practical skills like version control, software documentation, and working within a team.

In addition to technical skills, I have strong communication and interpersonal abilities, which I believe are vital for successful teamwork and effective project management. I enjoy collaborating with others, learning from their experiences, and contributing to a positive and productive work environment.

Thank you for your time and consideration. I'm excited to be a part of this team and contribute to its success!"

Why should I hire you?

1. As a fresher, I always try to give my best and try to improve my skills which are useful for the organization.
2. As a fresher, I want to learn new things and get some knowledge of new things and I have knowledge of c, c++ and java. I am a very goal-oriented and adaptable person and I implement my theoretical knowledge. And I will do my best.
3. Sir/madam. As I am a Fresher I don't have a lot of Experience But My skills are matching to the job profile. I need a good platform to explore and enhance my knowledge resulting in the growth of the Organisation and also the growth of my career. If you provide this opportunity to me, I will perform my best in all working stages whether the given work is challenging or not as I am a hardworking individual. I am looking forward to opportunities where I can learn and grow.

What are your strengths and weaknesses?

1. My main strength is hardwork and honesty.

My main weakness is that I trust others easily.

2. My Strengths are that I am self-motivated, hard-working with Honesty.

My Weakness is that I Didn't feel good if I didn't do my work completely.

3. My Strengths are I am a good learner and I am a self-motivating person with a positive attitude towards my career and life and I am loyal to my work because I always value time and I understand that, "Time once gone can never be regained".

My weakness is my kindness and I can't say no if anyone asks me for help. I think that's my weakness, it's because I need to work a little extra.

How do you feel about working nights and weekends?

As a fresher my responsibility is to gain more skills, so I don't have a problem doing work at any time.

What are your goals?

1. My goal is to achieve a good position in my career and help the organization too.
2. My short-term goal is to secure a challenging and rewarding position in a dynamic organization where I can utilize my skills and knowledge to make a meaningful contribution.

In the long-term, I hope to advance my career and become a leader in my field. I am always looking for opportunities to learn and grow, and I believe that with hard work and dedication, I can achieve my career goals..

What makes you angry?

1. Basically, As I am a human being I have many emotions and anger is one of them.
2. But, basically, I get angry when someone interrupts in my working zone without my permission.

Explain how you would be an asset to this organization?

1. I can be an asset for your organization by being a fast learner. Fast learners are invaluable to any company as they tend to learn fast, retain information easily & work fast so for the price of 1 person you'll get the work of 2.

2. I am an enthusiastic person, I am always eager to learn new things, and I am hardworking as well as a quick learner. I am very dedicated to my work, I will give my 100% for the growth of the company which will eventually enhance my knowledge.
3. As a fresher what makes us different from experienced employees is that we are entering in this field with a new mind, enthusiasm and most crucially creativity, thinking outside the box will make us a critical asset to any company.

Who has inspired you in your life and why?

1. My mother inspired me alot. She told me to do hard work until I get the result and don't go back and she motivates me. She sacrificed for my career and faced a lot of difficulties in her life that's why my mother is my inspiration.
2. My parents are my inspiration, as they work hard just to provide us with all the facilities. My brother always helps me with difficult questions in maths or any other subject. Whenever I ask him a question he quickly makes me understand that term. My little sister also helps me in a difficult situation. And yes they are my inspiration.
3. In my life, many people inspired me to achieve success, my parents sacrificed a lot but hiding their pain they never gave up and always motivated me with my work. They are hardworking only for me to live a better and happy life.
My teachers are my second parents and they gave me knowledge treating us like their own children. My siblings always help me in every situation whenever I have difficulties. My friends are always ready to share their things with me. They always remain with us whenever I am happy and sorrowful.

Where do you see yourself five years from now?

1. In 5 years, I see myself as an integral part of the company who has helped contribute to the growth and success of the organization.
2. I want to see myself in a good position through learning experience from the seniors.
